ENGLAND v FRANCE
K.O. 3.00PM LIVE ON BIG SCREEN

There are two sides to Tom May. Gentleman off the pitch, a ferocious competitor on it. So what better way to celebrate his ten years at the Falcons than with a dramatic double header? See the Falcons take on the Harlequins in a vital Guinness Premiership match and then settle down with the team to watch the televised England v France fixture in the RBS 6 Nations.

The rugby feast starts on 15th March at 11.00am with a grand buffet, complimentary wine until the final whistle and then the chance to watch the England game live on TV with some of the Falcons team. Don't miss it!

Tickets £125 or £1250 for a table of ten
